Tanya Is Always Second-Ironsides Captures Double Event in the Whitney Colors -Castalian Successful in Jumping Event-Great Crowd at the Bay.

Nearly 40,000 turf enthusiasts accorded a royal ovation to James R. Keene's Sysonby when he won the Lawrence Realization stakes. for three-year-olds, one mile and five fur-longs, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon in such easy style that Jockey Nicol was in the act of pulling the great Melton colt to a walk at the wire. Of the original entries, Sydney Paget's Cairngorm was withdrawn, leaving four to go. While Sysonby was a prohibitive favorite at 2 to 5, H. P. Whitney's crack filly Tanya, by Meddler, was well supported for the place at 7 to 10, with an army of small betters backing her to win at fours, simply with the idea of taking a chance. August Belmont's by Hastings, was not so much in demand, although many place bets on him at 9 to 10 were registered, while Fred Bur-lew's Migraine, by Top Gallant, was so lightly regarded that you could have written your own ticket against him.

The start was made well up the Futurity course. Tanya, with Lyne up, had the rail, vhile Sysonby lined up on the extreme outwhile Sysonby lined up on the extreme outside, next to Migraine. When Mars Cassidy sent them away Lyne made a desperate attempt to hold the rail with the Whitney filly. She had a world of speed, but it was nothing to the lightness of foot displayed by Sysonby, for with a terrific rush the Keene colt quickly assumed command, and when he dashed down past the judges for the first he dashed down past the judges for the first time he was a couple of lengths in front of Tanya. Nicol had Sysonby under double wraps, and it may be said that he never let them out. Sysonby, with a long, machine-like stride, superb action and meteoric speed, was the master of the situation from the very beginning. Tanya, under a pull, hung to him tenaciously in the long run around the lower turn into the backstretch, but she nover had a chance to catch Mr. Keene's champion.

Micol looked back repeatedly, but still kept the lower turn into the backstretch, but she never had a chance to catch Mr. Keene's champion.

Micol looked back repeatedly, but still kept Sysonby under restraint, for there was no necessity of hurrying him at all. Blandy was standing on his head, so to speak, when Sysonby turned the mile in a fraction slower than 1:40, and was then beaten hopelessly. On the far turn Tanya was let down, and she made a bold attempt to go up to the leader, but in vain. Lyne drove her for all he was worth, but Nicol, looking back once more drew away with the king of the turf, and when he entered the homestretch in all his majesty the crowd broke into wild cheers. Bysonby passed the judges five lengths to the good in 2:47, the best record for the track and race being 2:45 1-5, made in 1908 by Africander. Tanya was three lengths before Migraine, while Blandy was last, six lengths back.

The sensational victory of H. P. Whitney's Ironsides, by Hamburg—Hanoana, in the second part of the Double Event, for two-yearolds, six furlongs on the Futurity course, was almost as popular as Sysonby's triumph. Ironsides was superbly ridden by Jack Martin, and was a strong second choice at 13 to 5, the Madden entry, Timber and Belmere, ruling favosite at 8 to 5. Fred Cook's Geo. C. Bennett, who gave weight to his company, was backed at fives, with 8 to 1 against James R. Keene's Bohemian. H. B. Duryea's McKittredge, a half-brother to McChesney, was an added starter, and neglected at fifteens. It was a smashing race all the way, Vendor, Bohemian, Bill Phillips and Ironsides taking turns at pacemaking. When Martin sat down to ride Mr. Whitney's gelding, however, he quickly took the lead. Shaw hung to him gamely with McKittredge, while O'Neill was also very busy with Timber. At the end Ironsides, under the whip, was victorious by half a length in 1:14, McKittredge beating Timber by a head, with Geo. C. Bennett two lengths a length in 1:14. McKittredge beating Timber by a head, with Geo. C. Bennett two lengths away.

After a superb exhibition of jumping, J. W. Colt's Castalian, 8 to 1, who was in front for the greater part of the journey, won the Independence, Steeplechase, at about two miles and a half, in a gallop by eight lengths. T. Hitchcock, Jr's, Black Hussar, odds-on favorite, who ran second a neck before Gold Van, 9 to 2 might have been a more dangerous factor if he had not partially fallen over the last jump on the backstretch at a time when he was pressing Castalian hotily. Ray kept him on his feet, but so much ground was lost by the accident that there was no further chance for success. The time was 5:10 2-5.

Andrew Miller's Incantation, 4 to 1 second choice, was another successium mount for Martin, who brought him home the winner of the second event, a highweight handicap, at six furlongs, with a length and a half over Sydney Paget's Zeala, the favorite, who beat Lady Uncas, 4 to 1, a head for the place. The time was 1:13 3-5.

Peter Wimmer's Ocean Tide, 13 to 5 favorite, made all the pace in the fifth race, at a mile and three-sixteenths, and won in a drive by a length and a half from M. Corbett's The Boutherner, 7 to 1. E. R. Bradley's Palm Tree, 12 to 1, was third, three lengths back. E. R. Thomas's Onatas, backed down to 7 to 2, was outrun from the start. The time was 300.1-5.

Willie Knapp landed Buttling, an 8 to 1 Willie Knapp landed Buttling, an 8 to 1 shot, the winner in the last race, a handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass. The Star Ruby colt closed with a rush on the fail and beat Tommy: Waddell, 10 to 1, by a head in the last few vards. Palmbearer, 5 to 1, was a length back. Garnish, Jonquil and Merry Lark, the choices, were the victims of a jam on the lower turn, in which Wotan stumbled and Miller was thrown out of the saddle unhurt. The time was 147. Four favorites were beaten over a good track. The attendance was the largest of the meeting. The summaries:

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., July 4.—The jackies from the North Atlantic squadron and the residents of this town had a gala time to-day at the athletic field day arranged by Rear HUESTIS HURT IN CYCLE RACE. The weather was beautiful and the sailors thoroughly enjoyed the day on shore. Flag Lieutenant Crossley was director of the tournament, which consisted of baseball games between the nines from the different vessels, running races and other field events. The morning baseball game between the Maine and Massachusetts nines was won by the former by the score of 3 to 1. Flanigan of the Keatsarge was tied with Goderscharles, of the Maine, in the greased poleclimb and Schmidt of the Alabama won the obstacle race. James R. Keene heads the list of winning owners for the Sheepshead Bay meeting, which closed yesterday, with a total of $48,500, Sysonby's victories in the Tidal Stakes, the Commonwealth Handleap and the Lawrence Realization contributing largely to this success. Sydney Paget stands second on the list, with $27,635; August Belmont third, with $23,220; E. E. Smathers fourth, with $21, 705; 3, S. Brown fifth, with $18,280; H. P. 249 4-5; Major Daingerield, 2:47 2-6; Africander, 2:45 1-5, and Ort Wells, 2:46 1-5. That Sysonby could have hung up a new record there can be no doubt, as he was never extended for a moment. He ran the same kind of a race which won for him the Tidal and the Commonwealth, and after it was over the turf sharps again pronounced him the greatest racehorse of modern times. John W. Rogers, the trainer of Tanya, hurried to Mr. Keene in the paddock after the race and said:

"Sysonby is a wender, Mr. Reene! I am convinced of his greatness and I want nothing more to do with him."

Mr. Keene was deligh ted at the result and received countless congratulations all the afternoon. He told his friends that it was his belief that Sysonby was the greatest racehorse either in this or any other country and that it would be a long time before his equal or superior will be seen on the turf. So highly did the bookmakers regard Sysonby that they would not take chances with the big plungers. Nearly all of them put 2 to 5 on their slates or 9 to 20, and they took small wagers from their regular customers rather than lose their patronage, but when the big fellows and the clubhouse commissioners came into the ring prepared to bet unlimited money, in the shape of $10,000 and $20,000 wagers, they were told firmly but politely that there was nothing doing. Several of the speculative bookies had their runners out early getting down $2,000 wagers on the Keene cold in small bets, but that was about all there was to the support accorded the champion. After the victory many books said that they would never lay anything but prohibitive odds against Sysonby in his future engagements.

The Sheepshead Bay meeting was prolific of clean racing and heavy speculations. In the ring yesterday a story was told on excellent authority to the effect that one of the best known clubhouse This particular commissioner, by the way, had $3,000 on Castallan at $6 to when the latter won the Independence Steeplechase yesterday.

The Sheepshead Bay meeting was prolific on the winner, Castalian, who went up in the prices only to be backed at the last moment by the clubhouse set.

Incantation was scratched from the fifth race and started in the second, which in itself was a good tip. He enabled Sol Lichtenstein Heney, Stifel and the clubhouse to cash extensively. There was a tip on King Cole which was followed earnestly by Dick Doggett, Jack McGinnis and Joe Hayman, all to no purpose. Joe Yeager lost $1,000 on Pasadena. Charley Fox played Lucy Young, Eole Pearsall split a wager on Zeala and Charles Head Smith, the Drake-Gates agent, bet a bunch on Geranium.

Ironsides's success in the Double Event hit some of the books in the solar plexus. Joe Hayman, Tom Lloyd, Kid Rogers, Pack McKenna, Morris Hayman, the Lichtensteins, Leo Mayer and the clubhouse agents wagered thousands on the Whitney youngster, while the public, or rather the form players, banked on Timber, Joe Yeager lost $1,500 on Bill Phillips, Max Blumenthal had $500 three ways on McKittredge, who was backed to win $7,500 by Eddie Burke, only to lose by a small unargin. Mark Riordan played Bohemian, while Stifel, Joe Cassidy and Eole Pearsall went to Bennett.

The Lichtensteins were aboard of Ocean Tide in the fifth race. Dave Johnson and J. Grant Lyman dropped heavy bets on Dekaber, with Joe Rose taking Ken, Joe Yeager supporting Possession, E. R. Thomas and Harry Hoffman backing Onatas, and Joe Hayman cashing a bet of $5,000 to $2,000 on The Southerner a place. Kid Rogers bet $1,000 straight on The Southerner, with no protector.

Jack McGinnis played Buttling across the books in the less race. $1,000 straight on The Southerner, with no protector.

Jack McGinnis played Buttling across the boards in the last race, $500 each way, and taking $6,000 from the books. Buttling, as usual, was backed by a number of Brooklyn politicians, who have followed him all the season with much success. Sydney Paget and his friends played Jonquil in this race, and so did many of the handicappers.

Raymond Hopkins, employed as a clerk by Sol Lichtenstein, and a popular member of the bookmakers' fraternity, died on Monday night.

by Sol Lichtenstein, and a popular member of the bookmakers' fraternity, died on Monday night.

Harry Bulger, the comedian, was making book on the back line under the name of "Goldie." He was the man behind the gun as he sat in the background and watched the slate handler with keen eyes.

George Odom told some of his friends on Monday that, after riding Blandy in the Realization, he would retire permanently from the saddle. But when asked about the matter yesterday he said that he had not fully made up his mind to get out of the business and would probably continue riding now and then until the end of the season.

The Columbia Stable has sold Graziallo to W. B. Jennings for $10,000. It is surmised that the horse will ultimately go to the Haggin stud.

Previous winners of the second part of the Double Event were Torso, Russell, Victory, Corduroy, Hornpipe, Cesarion, Handspring, Ornament, Hamburg, Jean Beraud, Mesmerist, Elkhorn, Flywheel, White Chapel, Conjuror and Veto.

Previous winners of the Independence, Steeplechase were Lion Heart, Trillion. Dr Catlett (twice), Magic Light, George W. Jenkins, Land of Clover and Foxhunter.

Sound, was one of the best in the history of the club. Forty-nine boats started and raced in a southwesterly wind. At first the wind was light, but it steadily increased in strength, so that every boat went the full course and finished in good time.

The yachts were sent around the usual triangles, going to the eastward first. It was a reach with booms to port to the first was a reach with booms and a reach across week across and a reach across and a reach across mark a beat to the second and a reach across the Sound home. The Yankee and Mineola met again, and the Mineola won. Ford's Katrina, had little trouble beating the Kiwassa. In the 33 foot class of sloops, the Mimosa won, beating the Nike 12 minutes 22 seconds. The Regina did not finish. footers met, and, as usual, made a very close race of it. RECORD TIME FOR 75 YARDS. F. Engelhardt Runs in 7 1-5 Seconds at Sheepshead Bay A. C. Games.

The Sheepshead Bay A. C. celebrated the Fourth in becoming fashion with a set of games at the club's grounds, Twenty-fifth street and Voorhees avenue, and the open events attracted a good entry, some champions figuring in the list. One of the most note-worthy events of the day turned out to be the 75 yard handicap for club members. The winner was F. Engelhardt, who from the scratch mark covered the distance in the astonishing time of 7 1-5 seconds, breaking all former world's records. Only two timers, E. Gott and T. Patterson of the Sheepshead Bay A. C., timed the race, and they agreed, but as the A. A. U. rules call for three timers Bay A. C., timed the race, and they agreed, but as the A. A. U. rules call for three timers the record will hardly ever receive official recognition. The course was the full 75 yards, as it was measured immediately with a steel tape. The accepted world's record for 75 yards is 7.2-5 seconds, by B. J. Wefers and L. H. Cary some years ago.

The final heat of the 75 yard handicap resulted in a dead heat between H. E. Gennett, of the Seventy-first Regiment, with an allowance of 16 feet, and W. H. Dempsey, Albany A. C., with 17 feet. MANCHERTER, Vt., July 4.—R. B. Leake of Albany, won the Independence cup by defeating W. J. Evans of New York city, by the score of 3 up and 2 to play in the final thirty-six hole round. This ends the open handicap tournament, which has been in progress on the Ekwanok links for the past three days. Leake, who had an allowance of two strokes, was 2 down at the end of the morning round. The New Yorker won the first two holes in the afternoon, increasing his lead to four, but the pace then proved too hot and he fell down. His opponent, however, continued to play his steady game of the morning and finally won out on the fifteenth green. The Old Glory cup went to C. R. Murphy of Philadelphia. He put out George H. Thacher, 2, of Albany, in the final thirty-six hole match by the score of 6 up and 5 to play. STORM DAMAGES CUP COURSE. Weighing Tents Blown Down-Dangers of Auvergne Circuit.

Special Cable Despatch to TER SUN. CLERMONT-FERRAND, July 4.—A terrible storm to-day blew down the tents here, including the weighing tent. A dozen cars are yet unweighed. If the weighing cannot be done before the time for starting the auto race for the Bennett Cup, the machines will start and be checked afterward. The Auvergne circuit, over which the race will take place to-morow, lies just to the west of the Clermont-Ferrand grand stand of the French Automobile Club, which is reof the French Automobile Club, which is re-sponsible for all the arrangements. The stand is located at the point at which the race will begin, and end and faces the Puy de Dôme. The course is a little over eighty-five miles. The circuit will have to be traversed four

The circuit will have to be traversed four times.

When it was first announced that this course had been chosen, there was a general outcry, because of the extraordinary difficulties and dangers presented by the route. Indeed, many experts declared the track to be an impossible one for the purposes of a race. Subsequent experience, however, has shown that the criticism was rather overdone. That there are difficulties to be surmounted and dangers to be avoided cannot be denied; but they have been to an appreciable extent minimized by measures adopted by the French club. Here and there the road has been widened, and at the more awkward corners the track has been banked up.

more awkward corners the track has been banked up.

The course has been subjected to a severe test, for it was utilized for the French eliminating trials. There were accidents, some of them very nasty ones, but nobody was killed, and so the organizers of the race were quite elated. When all is said, however, the fact remains that the Auvergne course will put a greater strain on the cars and their drivers, to say nothing of the tires, than any previous race for the Benneit trophy has done.

A Frenchman has made an interesting study of the difficulties of the course. The Auvergne circuit has 250 turnings, of which 100 are bad. If one considers only these latter, there are in the whole course, or four laps of the circuit, 400 bad turns.

The fifteen cars that completed the race in the eliminating trials, therefore, between them covered 6,000 turns, while nine cars dropped out after averaging two and one-fifth turns each. In other words, between 8,000 and 9,000 difficult turns were made, and on only one of them was there a failure.
